

A Gentleman's Guide to Drinking Well in Las Vegas

Aug. 1, 2014

Here are five Las Vegas Strip properties where the cocktails are good and the bartenders are ready to stir up anything you desire, provided you've got the bankroll.

Best known for the High Roller observation wheel, where you can imbibe champagne while 550 feet in the air, this new dining/shopping complex also makes bouncing around for a few drinks easy. The Brooklyn Bowl music venue has five bars and a menu from Blue Ribbon Restaurants that features bourbon milkshakes. Other boozy options at the LINQ include the Chayo restaurant/tequila bar, the BLVD. Cocktail mixology lair, and even the spiked organic juices at Squeeze.
